and domestic food security issues. Education focused on the Global Food Security Act, which was passed and became law, and Child Nutrition Reauthorization. The Alliance also built out its youth engagement initiative - launching a Youth Opportunity Resource Inventory on the website, which is an online resource through the Alliance website which provides youth interested in breaking into the world of food security a tool to find opportunities to get involved. Finally, the Alliance has also been developing a racial equity component to its work, and secured a Emerson Hunger Fellow from the Congressional Hunger Center to help lead on this work policy analysis in the areas of agriculture, food security and nutrition. Additionally, the Alliance adopted a leadership role in the SDG2 Advocacy Hub - a global platform of food security-focused organizations that collects, disseminates, and in some cases helps coordinate global food security advocacy efforts. Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:

The Controller and Director of Finance compare the federal Form 990 to the audited financial statements. All variances are verified against schedules to determine that they are correct.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

ATEH's policy is that, on an annual basis, members of the Board of Directors sign a new conflict of interest statement. Any possible conflicts listed are reviewed by the Executive Director to determine if they truly reflect a conflict. If so, the statements are discussed with the Executive committee. If the committee believes the conflict is real, the board member is asked either to resign from the board of directors or stop the activity that is creating the conflict.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

ATEH does not directly hire or compensate employees. All employees are employees of BREAD For The World, Inc. (BREAD), an organization exempt under section 501(c)(4). Periodically, BREAD's human resources department receives general market data from an outside compensation consultant to determine if salaries are in line with organizations of similar mission and/or size. A more thorough market analysis of compensation of specific positions is provided by an outside compensation consultant on an ad hoc basis. The President's salary is reviewed by the board of directors of BREAD on a periodic basis. This is discussed and documented in the executive session. These notes are kept by the board secretary and are not open to the public. However, the board of directors does seek the same independent comparison data for the President that BREAD seeks for all other staff (including other members of the executive team).

The Alliance's website includes governance and financial information. Several charity and business rating sites, such as the Better Business Bureau and Charity Navigator, also post these documents and additional information.
