Sponsorship Opportunities

Alliance to End Hunger

Unites diverse sectors to address today's hunger and malnutrition needs and to solve the root causes of hunger at home and abroad.

Over 100 members representing corporations, foundations, nonprofit organizations, faith-based groups, universities and individuals.

Premiere platform for stakeholders to collaborate and advocate for stronger policy solutions to end hunger.

Hunger Free Communities Network™

Alliance to End Hunger's signature domestic program.

Convenes over 50 anti-hunger coalitions in 31 states.

These “hunger free community” coalitions bring together multi-sector stakeholders to unite behind a common vision and strategy to end hunger.

The Alliance promotes advocacy, shares best practices and builds capacity through communications, gatherings, tools and resources.

The HFC Summit

The 2024 Hunger Free Communities Virtual Summit is national event to be held on November 14, featuring:

- The ways the sector can modernize tools, practices, and policies to better address current challenges.
- Keynote speakers highlighting the current state of food security in the U. S.
- Panels and workshops highlighting effective and innovative strategies for increasing food security, as well as important policy developments.
- HFC Award to an outstanding community organization.

Past HFC Summits

The Hunger Free Communities Summit has grown substantially in recent years.

- The HFC Summit attracted over 600 registrants in 2023.
- Past keynote speakers include Congressman Jonathan Jackson (IL), USDA Deputy Secretary Jewel Bronaugh, Ambassador Tony Hall, Senator John Boozman (AR) and more!
